THE SYNTAX OF YOUR MOVEMENT

LOOKBOOK CONCEPT PROPOSAL

Natural light / cinematic shadows

Vintage color accents / film grain

Movement-led fashion portraiture

CLIENT PRESENTATION / CONCEPT ONLY

01

MOVEMENT BEFORE POSE.

A silhouette is not fixed at the moment of dressing.

It shifts through posture, motion and touch.

The photograph records a trace of that change.

VISUAL INTENT

Intimate, imperfect and tactile.

Unstaged gestures. Uncompromised daylight.

Clothes lead; the camera follows.

02 / LIGHT

HARD DAYLIGHT.

Use a single directional window source.

Keep the edge of sunlight visibly sharp.

Protect deep shadow and bright highlights.

Do not fill every dark area.

ON SET

Shoot when sun creates long, clear shapes.

Expose for skin, retain luminous whites.

Avoid flat overcast light and heavy diffusion.

SOURCE VISUAL / SAKK SYNTAX

VINTAGE, NOT NOSTALGIC.

Texture should feel incidental, never decorative.

IMAGE TREATMENT

Visible, fine film grain

Slightly warm highlights

Neutral-to-cool shadows

Muted color saturation

Natural skin texture

Strong tonal separation

No washed-out presets.

MODEL CASTING

Direction and criteria / no booking included

ONE LEAD MODEL

Expressive through subtle movements.

Comfortable with awkward, off-axis poses.

Able to articulate the garment’s changing form.

Individual character over conventional polish.

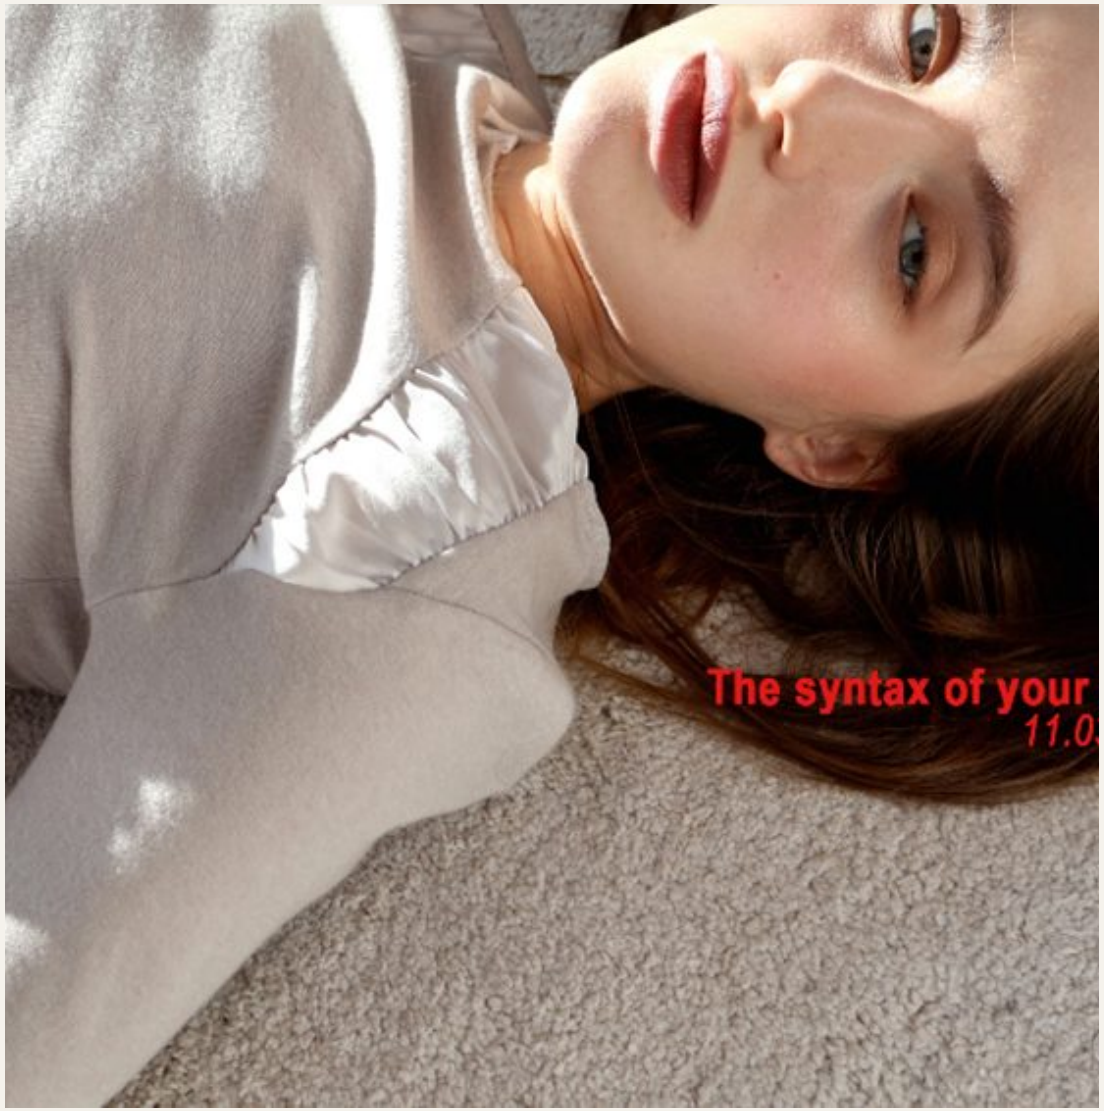

SAMPLE CASTING DELIVERABLE

A visual casting brief and 3-5 candidate references.

Final availability, fees and rights checked separately.

No agency booking or appearance fees in this scope.

BARE SKIN. FADED COLOR.

A natural base with a lived-in vintage accent.

SKIN

Sheer finish; freckles and skin texture visible.

EYES + CHEEKS

Soft taupe, muted apricot or faded rose.

LIPS

Blotted brick red or muted berry; no hard edge.

HAIR

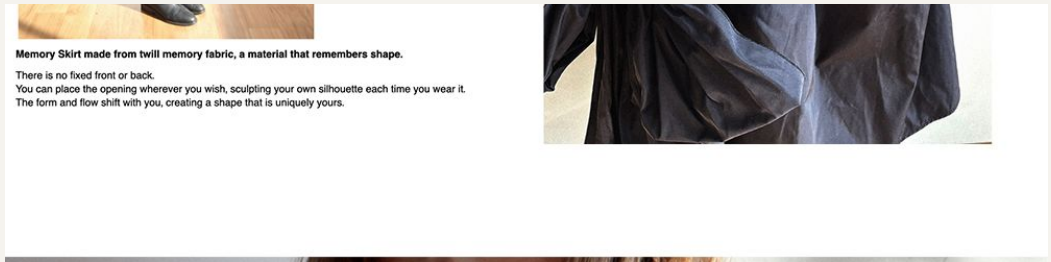

Natural movement; slightly undone, low product.

VINTAGE COLOR NOTES

STYLING IS A VERB.

Kinetic Top / Use gestures that pull and release the fabric. Prioritize motion over symmetry.

Memory Skirt / Show fastening alternatives, turning, folding and shifting of volume.

LOCATION

Quiet domestic architecture.

Off-white walls, textured carpet, wood flooring.

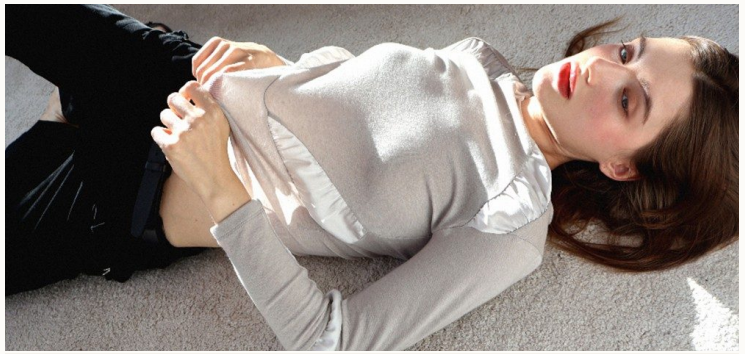

One strong sun-facing window. Minimal props.

Unstyled enough to keep the body believable.

AVOID / heavy sets, glossy backdrops, staged glamour
